

General guidelines for the visit to the Gujarat Raj Bhavan, Gandhinagar, through the On-Line Registration System.

General: -

Gujarat Raj Bhavan is situated on the western border of Gandhinagar on the national highway no. 8-A proceeding towards Rajkot. The Sabarmati river flows only about 500 meters away. It is situated in the vicinity of the Gandhinagar Circuit House; and is at the very entrance of the Ministers' Bungalows complex. The entire estate has a very pleasant environment and a visit to the Raj Bhavan is a very pleasant and memorable experience indeed.

Raj Bhavan, hitherto a restricted place:-

Raj Bhavan has been traditionally recognized as the office-cum-residence of the Governor. It represents authority and commands respect. It has an air of dignity and grace. People at large have a great respect for it. Its premises are like a well-guarded citadel which generally remains closed for the public, as the entry inside the Raj Bhavan has always remained restricted.

Opening up the Raj Bhavan to the Public:-

In today's age of transparency in administration, people at large have a right to know about any government institute and its functioning. Even the Raj Bhavan cannot remain an exception.

In his desire to make the राजभवन a लोकभवन over a period of time, Shri O. P. Kohli, Hon. Governorshri of Gujarat, had directed the Raj Bhavan secretariat to chalk out modalities for opening up the Raj Bhavan to the people. Consequently, it has been decided to keep the Raj Bhavan open to the public thrice a week initially.
